POWERS' TRIAL CLOSING

The Goebel Murder Case Soon to Go to the Jury.

The Defence May Rest Its Side on Saturday and the Prosecution WIII felt for him by his followers. Consume Three Days in Producing Testimony in Rebuttal-L. F. Sinelair Goes Upon the Witness Stand.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 9.- The de-Sence presented more contradictions today, but they were not on material points. The defence also produced a witness, L. F. Sinclair, who said he looked out of the although 150 feet away.

The defence hopes to conclude by Saturday morning, and the prosecution will then require about three days for rebuttal. The jury may get the case in ten-

Surveyor Coolman was on the stand flected, had come from a point 7 feet above the windowsill of the west window of the Secretary of State's office.

After recess the prosecution asked that Capt. S. S. Stone, the ex-auditor, be recailed. Colonel Owens, for defence, said It was irregular, but he would not object "I have allowed your side to do the same thing," said Judge Contrill.

"That was after they got through, and it was our right to do so, and I say this is irregular," replied Owens in a rather

"I say it is not irregular, and have ruled, and you can sit down," said the judge with a slight rising inflection.

"I say, your honor, that I do not object to witness coming in now, but I say it is irregular."

Well, if you are not objecting, why are you standing up talking against it? I have decided it," said Judge Cantrill. "Your honor has the right to decide it," said Owens, still standing up, and in a manner indicating he would not sit down. "Mr. Clerk, enter a fine of $10 against Mr. Owens and issue a capias forthwith," said the judge.

Owens stood up a few seconds longer, but said nothing more.

D. H. Sinclair, a telegraph operator at Frankfort, was recalled by the defence to lay the foundation for a contradiction. He s asked if he had not on July 25 told H. S. Keller that he had been promsed a place, but the promise had not been fulfilled that he said he had gone to Justus Goebel and demanded a posi-tion; that he had been offered money for his testimony, but he had agreed to accept a position as an exchange of courte-sies. That he could break down the proce-cution if he wanted to and had given Justus Goebel one week to fuifill the or he would go over to the de-

The prosecution objected and the court ruled that he need not answer.

The defence recalled Robert Noakes for the purpose of contradiction. Noakes said be never said to Abe Herndon that he was going on the stand, but would answer no questions except when his attorney nodded his head. He said he did say to Herndon that he was in the hands of his attorneys and would do what they said. He said he never told B. A. Rice that he would get a written contract that he was not to be prosecuted before he would testify.

ZION DOWIE'S FAREWELL.

Leaves His Flock at Chicago to Visit the Holy Land.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9 .- "Dr." John Alexander Dowie, "overseer on earth of the Christian Catholic Church," left Chicago today for a trip through the Holy Land. His departure furnished occasion for a remarkable demonstration of the affection

It has been known in "Zion" for several weeks that Dr. Dowie would leave this afternoon and thousands prepared to wit ness his leave taking. The men amou the Zionists are for the most part work ingmen and they cheerfully lost a tay's wages to show their regard for their leader, and the women as readily and cheerfully followed their example. Although the start was not to be made until 10:30 this forenoon the streets in the Sinclair, who said he looked out of the window of the Governor's office after the shots were fiered and as soon as he saw opened through the crowd by the Zion the body of a man lying on the pavement. assassination.
When the start for 23th station was made a squad of guards preceded the carriage, while others walked at the sides, and the great mass of Zionites fell in behind, f.rm-ing a discordant but not disorderly proces-sion. On reaching the Michigan Central station the crush to grasp the "doctor's" Surveyor Coolman was on the stand again this morning. According to his calculations if the bullet traveled 9:2-2 inches through Goebel's body and in decing se fell 1:12-16 inches in that distance, it indicated that the bullet, if not decited that the bullet is not decited that the bullet is not decited that the bullet, if not decited that the bullet is not decided that the bullet is not dec trained in congregational or chorus sing-ing, the effect was far from displeasing. The Government Seeking to Have Him Put on Trial at Havana.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 .- Gen. Henry L. Burnett, United States District Attorney, returned to this city today from Washington, where he yesterday consulted with Secretary Root and Attorney General Griggs as to the future action to be taken by the Government in the Neely case. In speaking of a despatch from Washington saying that the Government looks for an application for a writ of habeas corpus, and that the conference yesterday was to propare arguments against the writ, General Burnett said this was merely newspaper suggestion, he had received no in-timation that a writ of habeas corpus would be sought, and doubted the availability of such an effort by Neely's attorneys. ## FORECASTING THE FIGHT

Fitzsimmons and Rublin to Meet in the Ring Tonight.

Akron Giant's Victory Over Sharkey Entitles Him to the Position of Favorite-The Cornishman, However, a Better Ring General and Capable of Landing Some Hard Blows.

NEW YORK Aug 9.-Robert Fitzsimnons, whose only defeat during a ring career of ten years in this country, was at the hands of Champion James J. Jeffries will be put to another trying test in the ring of the Twentieth Century Athletic Club. Madison Square Garden, tomorrow night, when he faces Gus Ruhlin, the 'Akron Giant," in a twenty-five round

In making this match the principals realized two things-first, that if Ruhlin should win he would be so justly entitled to a fight with Jeffries that the latter would either be forced to accept or forfeit the championship. Second, that if Fitzsimmons should win he would be in line for another run in with the hig boiler-mater to regain his lost laurels. In addition to these things, the men saw visio gate*receipts.

The best line on Rublin is his victory over Sharkey. In that encounter, it will be remembered, that Sharkey went to his man at every stage of the game with hard rushing and heavy swings. Rublin, with well-timed footwork and clever blocking avoided nearly all of those blows and then with a fine left hand, he simply jabbed the railor in the head until he was "beat to death," as the bloodthirsty talent put it. In fact, Rublin met Sharkey just as Jeffries met Pitzsimmens, both the sailor and the Cornishman being whipped in very much the same way.

Fitzsimmons, having learned a lesson from his disastrous fight with Jeffries. understands well what to expect from Ruh lin. Fitz has seen Ruhlin fight a number of times and believes that he knows how to trim Madden's big protege. The Cornish man never had one set style of fighting. He has been a man quick to take advantage of the situation in the ring, no matter how suddenly it might change, and in this way he has won many important fights by landing a punch on the proper

It never has taken long for him to finish a man, after he has once got home one of his great wallops, and for this rea-son all the puglists he has met in modern times have feared to mix it up with him. Jefferies was particularly careful not to get in too close and so he handled Fitz solely at long range. Whether Ruhlin will adopt similar tactics remains to be Italy's Dead King at Rest in the

The Akron man is a good stiff puncher, but he cannot produce results like the Cornishman. If he had been able to hit as hard as Fitzsimmons, Ruhlin would have knocked Sharkey out much saster than he did, for he got to the sailor with comparative case. Fitzsimmons relying upon his punching power, is fond of mix-ups. If Ruhlin comes to his man the lat-ter will be more than satisfied as Bob is a terror at this style of going. But if Rubiin stays off and waits for Fitz to do the attacking, it will not be such easy sail-ing for the lanky man. And it is pretty good betting that, if Corbet's advice goes,

DEWEY SAYS WAR EXISTS.

The American Admiral Discusses the Chinese Situation. NEW YORK, Aug. 9 .- A despatch to the Brooklyn Eagle" from its Washington correspondent quotes Admiral Dewey as follows on the situation in China;

"I regard the situation in China as exceedingly grave. The difficulties that our soldiers will have to contend against are many and various. The conditions that exist there are very much the same as those in the Philippine Islands. You will see from the map just prepared by the War Department that the road between Tientsin and Pekin is very narrow and there is very little opportunity for ex-tensive military maneuvring. The troops will have to fight in small bodies just as our solciers have had to do in the Phil ippine Islands. The country offers all sorts of opportunities for ambuscades and sudden attacks on the part of the enemy. The fields are flooded and the ground very bad for an invading force."

When asked whether, in his opinion there was really a condition of war now xisting between this country and China,

"I should say most assuredly yes. They of the royal princes and of the late King, and was immediately preceded by the late King's first general aide-de-camp on horseback, bearing King Humbert's sword.

British Troops at Shaughai. In a despatch to the State Department Mr. Goodnow, Consul General at Shanghai, reports the intention of the British Vice Admiral Seymour to land troops at Shang hat, and expresses the opinion based on communications made to him by Chinese merchants and others that if British troops are landed the anti-foreign element might be incited to attack foreigners. The United States Government has no purpose of protesting to the British Government against the landing of troops at Shanghai. Its position is that any Government has the right to land armed forces n China for the protection of its own in erests.
